

Part Two

GOD IS NOT A RESPECTER OF PERSONS

I received my healing! Jesus paid the price for my healing. He provided it, and I received it. I often pray a prayer similar to this: “O mighty God, I give You all the glory and praise for my healing! Thank You for the wonderful gift of life. I embrace it as a priceless gift from You! And now I offer my life back to You. Use me, Father. I desire to serve You. Open a door, and expand my territory to serve You.”

God has opened door after door after door after door in my life and has given me the opportunity to serve Him and His people through a healing ministry. What a joy, what an honor, what a privilege – but what a responsibility!

I started receiving phone calls and requests shortly after my healing. Most of them came from cancer patients or their loved ones. They all had one thing in common: They were all desperately seeking physical healing.

The most important theme that runs through each of the testimonies that I will share in this section of my book, is that God is not a respecter of persons (Acts 10:34). When Jesus was walking on this earth, He healed ALL who were sick. The truth of the Word is for ALL who believe. Jesus died for the redemption of ALL humanity, if they will only accept it!

A BLESSED JOURNEY

As I started following the leading of the Holy Spirit and ministering to these people, I started seeing healings and changes of diagnoses left and right ... Terminal brain cancer is no longer cancer! A highly suspicious tumor with feelers into a heart is negative for cancer! Stage 4 lung cancer is in complete remission! Extremely suspicious blood counts are negative when tested for leukemia! An undiagnosed disease, with a suspicion of cancer, confusing doctors for months, is proven negative for cancer, is finally diagnosed, and completely cured! Stage 4 breast cancer is totally gone!

These are all healings I have been a witness to. I ministered to these real people facing real battles of life or death. The anointing of the Holy Spirit gave me the words as I shared my testimony. I shared God's promises regarding healing. I prayed in agreement with them. And they are all whole today and living an abundant life!

I am ecstatic and energized in my faith as I witness the power of God's healing. I am awestruck by the mightiness of our God. And I am truly humbled that He would use me as a minister of His Word and of His divine healing.

In this part of A Blessed Journey, I will share three incredible testimonies of healing. These three families have their loved ones with them today ... alive, whole, and healed by the power of God. God is not a respecter of persons. God heals today! Hallelujah!
