

PART TWO

Step by step with Jesus

Cancer is most certainly NOT from God. Cancer is terrible. For that matter, all sickness and disease are terrible. God hates sickness. He sent His Son to take all judgment for our sin, thus destroying the power of the curse of sin and death.

God revealed His amazing grace to me in greater measure throughout my healing journey; in the midst of cancer and treatment. James 1:2-4 (MSG) says: ²⁻⁴ Consider it a sheer gift, friends, when tests and challenges come at you from all sides. You know that under pressure, your faith-life is forced into the open and shows its true colors. So don't try to get out of anything prematurely. Let it do its work so you become mature and well-developed, not deficient in any way. This Scripture came to pass in my life. God carried me, encouraged me, strengthened me, molded me, grew me, and perfected me through my journey with His written and whispered word.

In the midst of my journey, I came to the realization that attaining my healing wasn't even an issue. My healing was a done deal. I KNEW that healing was my possession, paid for through Jesus at Calvary. God revealed to me that the significant part of my testimony wasn't about my healing; rather it was about "journeying well" on the way to attaining the healing that was already mine. He directed me to be transparent with the people I taught every week at healing school; sharing my spiritual journey through the midst of the cancer, treatment, and my subsequent healing. He also led me to write this book while I was in the very midst of my healing journey.

As you read, I believe you'll hear the voice of God speaking to you, just as He spoke to me throughout that season—with compassion, with encouragement, revealing His will to heal you and to set you free from the bondage of sickness and pain!

God is not a respecter of persons. I expected healing, and I received it. I expect it for you too!
